

This Week's Scripture

Matthew 21:23 to Matthew 22:14

Putting It Into Practice

Rebellion is as sinful as witchcraft, and stubbornness as bad as worshipping idols. 1 Samuel 15:23 NLT

1. Rebellion Begins as Passive Resistance (Matthew 21:28-32)
2. Rebellion Grows into Active Resistance (Matthew 21:33-46)
3. Rebellion Descends into Insolent Disrespect (Matthew 22:1-14)

Questions to Consider

1. What patterns of rebellion can you identify in your behavior?
 2. No matter what sins you have committed, Christ is there with you, waiting for you to turn to Him, to accept Him as your Saviour. If you haven't done so, you can accept Christ as your Saviour and today be saved from your sins. They have already been paid for by Christ's death on the cross. If you have accepted Christ as your Saviour, you can ask Him to give you the strength to turn away from your transgressions. Have you accepted Christ? Do you have sins that you would like to ask Him to forgive you for?
